Twin Rivers Names Two District Teachers of the Year

Sacramento, CA – Twin Rivers Unified School District named two teachers of the year during the annual Neighborhood Schools Celebrations in May.

The Elementary Teacher of the Year is Jeffrey Roberson. Jeffrey teaches fourth grade at Woodridge Elementary School.

The district teachers of the year selections are made by well-rounded committees that volunteer their time in an engaging selection process that includes nomination at the school level, essays, classroom observations, and interviews.

The Secondary Teacher of the Year is Barbara Ann Selland. Barbara Ann teaches seventh grade English, ELA Honors, eighth grade art, and yearbook at Norwood Junior High School.

The two educators will now represent Twin Rivers as they prepare for the Sacramento County Office of Education Teacher of the Year awards, which will be determined in August.

Twin Rivers Unified School District serves approximately 27,000 preschool through adult education students in northern Sacramento County. (www.twinriversusd.org)
