New Twin Rivers Police Chief Sworn In

Harvey Woo was sworn in July 22 as the new chief of police for the Twin Rivers Unified School District Police Department. The retired lieutenant with the Sacramento County Sheriff's Department took the oath of office during a ceremony officiated by Superintendent Dr. Steven Martinez.

Woo has more than two decades of law enforcement experience.

"I'm very excited and humbled," said Woo, who will oversee a department with 25 sworn officers. "This is a big responsibility, and I feel very comfortable moving forward in building a department with the same focus and mission as the district—to inspire each student to extraordinary achievement every day."

Chief Woo has a master's degree in emergency services administration from California State University, Long Beach, and a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from California State University, Sacramento. He began his career as a deputy with the Sacramento County Sheriff's Department in 1988, was promoted to sergeant in 2000 and lieutenant in 2004.

Chief Woo is also a graduate of the 247th class of the FBI National Academy.

Twin Rivers Unified School District serves approximately 30,000 preschool through adult education students in northern Sacramento County.
