Big Grant and Folsom Game Spurs Friendly Challenge
Twin Rivers USD, Folsom- Cordova USD Leaders to Wash Cars if Their Team Loses

Twin Rivers Superintendent Frank Porter and Board President Michelle Rivas have made a friendly wager with Folsom Cordova Superintendent Debbie Bettencourt and Board Member JoAnne Reinking on Friday's football game between the Grant Pacers and Folsom Bulldogs.

The superintendent and board member of the losing team will organize and work at a car wash to raise money for the opposing athletic program. If Grant wins, the Folsom carwash proceeds will go towards the Grant Sports Health Academy Program.

The 7:00 pm game at Folsom High School's Prairie City Stadium will be televised by ESPN2. There will also be a 7:00 am rally at Grant Stadium and the public is invited.

Please contact Folsom-Cordova Unified School District Public Information Officer, Stephen Nichols at 916.355.1100 x 123 or Twin Rivers Unified School District Director of Communications, Trinette Marquis at 916.825.7203 with questions.
