SACRAMENTO— Students from Orchard Elementary School will roll out the red carpet for international guests from Japan on Thursday, Sept. 26.

Ms. Ayako Niiyama is a staff member of the Tourism/International Exchange Division at Matsuyama City Office and a committee member of Matsuyama Sacramento Sister City Corporation. Niiyama will tour Orchard School with Kaoru Hooker, vice president for the Sacramento Matsuyama Sister City Corporation (the Sacramento counterpart to the Japanese affiliate).

Orchard students have skyped with students from Wake Elementary School in Japan several times the past few years. Details are being worked out for a formal sister city school agreement between the two schools.
