SACRAMENTO – The powerful art work of Milton 510 Bowens will be featured during a special Oct. 8 reception for Twin Rivers Superintendent Dr. Steven Martinez. Twelve pieces from Bowen’s collection, “The Art of Education,” will be on display at the district office until mid-November.

Bowens is one of several Northern California visual and performing artists who will be at the reception.

“We’ll have student performances, as well as community presentations,” says Jackie White, Twin Rivers’ arts integration curriculum facilitator. “We have a lot of support for students to have art as a daily part of their education, and this is an opportunity for the arts community and Dr. Martinez to collaborate and build future partnerships and programs.”
