Recorder Delivery Brings Music to Little Ears

SACRAMENTO—Several hundred Twin Rivers students are in for a huge surprise this afternoon. Not only will they receive new recorders, but they will also be in for a special treat when renowned tuba player Julian Dixon from the Sacramento Region Performing Arts Alliance shares his talent with them. Students will also receive lessons on the use and care of their new recorders, which are being delivered to 1,500 students at eight schools as a beginning step in the district's second full year of the Carnegie Hall Link Up! partnership.
