Twin Rivers Hero Inspires Others

McClellan, CA—Students at Rio Linda High School will honor incoming freshman Skylar Berry and her inspiring story of saving a classmate’s life by administering CPR when she was just 11 years old. In recognition of her efforts, Union Bank and the American Heart Association are donating 20 CPR mannequins to the school for training purposes (AB 1719). Berry will also be featured on a 2017 Rose Parade float dedicated to teaching students about CPR.
