DRUMLINE Headed to Japan

McClellan, CA— The Grant Union High School drumline is on the move ... again! This time the Drumline is headed to Japan to perform for the 35th anniversary of the sister city agreement between Sacramento and Matsuyama. It's also the 10th anniversary of the sister school agreement between Grant Union and Matsuyama Commercial High School.

Teacher James Van Buren, who's also the director of the Drumline, says students and chaperones are ready to board a charter bus to take them to San Francisco International Airport on Wednesday. From there it's a non-stop flight to Japan. The Drumline will be in Japan through Oct. 17.

WHO: Grant Union High School Drumline

WHAT: Boarding bus for the first leg of their trip to Japan

WHEN: 5 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 12, 2016

WHERE: Grant Union High School, 1400 Grand Ave., Sacramento
