PRESS RELEASE

Applications Available Online for Open Board Seat

McClellan, CA— The Twin Rivers Unified School District Board of Trustees is seeking applications from interested and qualified candidates to fill a vacancy in Trustee Area 5, which includes the North Natomas and Robla neighborhoods.

Applications are available online at: http://www.twinriversusd.org/misc/provisional\_appointment/ and are due by 4 p.m. Dec. 2, 2014, in the Board of Trustees' office, 5115 Dudley Blvd., McClellan, CA 95652.

To be eligible to be a school board member, applicants must be at least 18 years old, a citizen of California, a resident of the school district, a registered voter, and not disqualified by the Constitution or laws of the state from holding a civil office. Applicants must also live in Area 5.

The district will hold a community forum at 6 p.m. Dec. 1, 2014, at Regency Park Elementary School to get input about the kind of leadership qualities the community would like to see in a school board member. The Board will make an appointment by Dec. 11, 2014.

Regency Park is located at 5901 Bridgecross Drive, Sacramento, CA 95835.

For more information about the application process, contact Sharon Hally, Executive Assistant to the Board of Trustees, at 916.566.1600, ext. 50902.

Twin Rivers Unified School District serves approximately 28,000 preschool through adult education students in northern Sacramento County.
