MEDIA ADVISORY

Former World Champion Track Star at Grant

McClellan, CA—Marion Jones has a message for young people and she's bringing it to Grant Union High School. The former Olympic champion, stripped of her 2000 Summer Olympic medals after admitting to steroid use, will talk with student athletes on Jan. 12 about Take a Break—a program Jones created that encourages young people to stop, step away and think when they are faced with a difficult decision.

WHO: Marion Jones

WHAT: Take a Break Program

WHEN: 1 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 12, 2016

WHERE: Grant Union High School
1400 Grand Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95838

Jones will address 10th and 11th grade student athletes and leadership students.

Twin Rivers Unified School District serves approximately 28,000 preschool through adult education students in northern Sacramento County.
