Microsoft Vice President to Visit Twin Rivers USD

McClellan, CA— Microsoft Vice President of U.S. Education Margo Day will make two stops in California on Feb. 24—one at Stanford University; the other in Twin Rivers Unified School District.

Day will meet with Twin Rivers' superintendent, Dr. Steven Martinez, to discuss a dynamic new partnership that will impact teaching and learning in the 21st century—creating a culture of innovation based on lessons learned from Microsoft's current practices and services.

Day will be joined by representatives from Dell and Intel. The itinerary includes a meeting with the district's principals and the superintendent's staff, along with a tour of the district's new Bay D to see how the space can best be utilized for research and development for educational purposes.
